

AIRCRAFT ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS SEMINAR

Presented by Bob Nuckolls

Engineer, Teacher, Author, Publisher of The AeroElectric Connection
The definitive work in Owner Built and Maintained aircraft electrical systems.

40+ years experience

Several appearances at Oshkosh Forums

June 27-28, 2009

(Saturday-Sunday)

Mason City Municipal Airport (MCW)

Mason City, IA

Hosted by EAA Chapter 94

FLY or DRIVE

Whether you are just thinking about your aircraft electrical system or have it completed and flying, this weekend seminar will provide you with valuable information on:

System Design

Component Selection

Maintenance & Troubleshooting

Alternators & Regulators

Antennas and Feedlines

Crimp Tools and Soldering

Noise Propagation

Batteries

...and MUCH MORE

REGISTER ONLINE at <http://www.aeroelectric.com/>

Click on the WEEKEND SEMINARS button for a complete course outline.

To register, scroll down and click SCHEDULED PROGRAMS, then click Mason City, IA June 27/28, 2009 for the online registration form.

Click the Mason City Municipal Airport tab for airport information and a listing of nearby hotels. The seminar will be held in a spacious, well furnished hangar.